

SOCIAL JUSTICE STUDIES: AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIES (AA-T)

ASSOCIATES IN ARTS FOR TRANSFER (AA-T)

The Associate in Arts in Social Justice Studies: African American Studies for Transfer (AA-T) degree is an interdisciplinary program designed to prepare students for transfer to a CSU. This program is designed to provide students with an introduction to the theoretical principles and practices of Social Justice Studies. Additionally, this program pays particular attention to the study of the life history, culture, and social justice traditions of Black people. This program is designed to prepare students for seamless transfer to a CSU and toward a major in Africana Studies or those majors pertinent to race, ethnicity, and/or social justice.

Program Student Learning Outcomes

- Students will demonstrate a general understanding of the foundational theories and theoretical perspectives of social justice as it exists in a number of diverse disciplines.
- Students will demonstrate a general understanding of the foundational theories and theoretical perspectives that inform the broad discipline of Social Justice Studies.
- Students will critically analyze major subject areas and historical periods in the discipline of Africana Studies.
- Students will understand the historical struggle of African American people to achieve freedom, justice, and equality in the United States.
